Dating Safety Tips

1. Be Smart with Money
   - Never send money to someone you meet online. Never buy travel tickets or gifts for someone you have only met online.
   - Did You Know?
     - The top 3 financial losses reported to IC3 are:
       1. "I have been paid for my work and have not been paid.
       2. "I have not been paid for my work and have not been paid.
     - "My child has been kidnapped and I have not been paid.
     - "I have not been paid for my work and have not been paid."

2. Keep Your Private Info Private
   - Never include your personal contact information in your profile. Telephone numbers, email addresses, home addresses, and your full name are all private and should not be shared.

3. You're in Control with the Pace
   - You have the right to set the pace of the relationship. Don't let anyone pressure you into meeting in person or sharing private information.

4. Meet in a Public Place
   - When you decide to meet face to face, pick a public place and provide your own transportation to and from the location. Restaurants, coffee shops, and bowling alleys are examples of public places.
   - Be sure to let someone know where you are going and who you are going with.

5. Report Suspicious Activity
   - Report any suspicious activity to the appropriate authorities. You can also contact your local law enforcement agency or your state's consumer protection agency.
   - Report a Concern
     - If someone asks you for money, poses you, or makes you perform any activity that makes you uncomfortable, report the incident.
   - OR
     - Call 1-888-854-3803
